Re: DOMINIK DIFRISCO, et ano v.
MARRIOTT INTERNATIONAL, INC.
USDC-SD Civil Action No. 07CV1531
RK&T File No.: 640.039

Dear Magistrate Freeman:

I received by fax this afternoon a copy of your Order dated, regarding our telephone conference of March 31, 2008.

In that Order you direct that all remaining discovery issues are to be completed by Friday, April 10, 2008. This Order presumably includes the deposition of the defendant's Senior Vice President for Risk Management, Brad Wood, at the defendant's offices in Washington, D.C.

The plaintiff respectfully requests that we be permitted to conduct the deposition of Mr. Wood on or before May 15th, 2008. It will be necessary for my office to receive and review the defendant's accident/incident claims logs to prepare for that deposition. In the event that we need additional information to discern and/or decode the entries in the documents which the defendant will produce, I want to make sure that we have an opportunity to get that information prior to Mr. Wood's deposition.

I will be out of the country from April 23rd through April 29th. Therefore, I respectfully request that the deposition of Brad Wood be scheduled at a mutually convenient time on, or before, May 15th, 2008.

Thank you for your courtesy in this regard.

Very truly yours,
